The GunnerCase is the newest protective case by baseone labs. It's design was inspired by recoil pads found on shotguns. When GunnerCase is dropped, the sidewalls are designed to collapse and distribute the force around the case. This saves your iPhone while keeping the case thin and effective.

Cleaning hard water build up around faucets & Shower head. If possible soak spray nozzle on sink in vinegar for 20 minutes - for around the sinks - soak a paper towel in vinegar and place them on areas with hard water - spritz with more vinegar every so often and after 20 minutes or more if needed - remove items from vinegar and scrub with toothbrush - shouldn't take much scrubbing :) *HAVE to try this!

The diagram consists of four nested rectangles, each representing a different screen size or breakpoint. The rectangles are arranged in a descending staircase pattern from top-left to bottom-right. The top-most rectangle is the largest, followed by a smaller one below it, then an even smaller one, and finally the smallest rectangle at the bottom-left. All rectangles are outlined in a dark blue line. The text 'Puntos de corte' is positioned at the top-left corner of the largest rectangle.
